

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER CONVALESCENT PLASMA DONATION

WHAT IS CONVALESCENT PLASMA?

Blood donated by people who have recovered from COVID-19

Donated blood contains antibodies to the virus that causes it

The blood donated by recovered individuals is used to help others recover

This helps individuals with active COVID-19 fight the virus

The donated blood is processed to remove blood cells, leaving behind plasma and antibodies.

WHERE CAN I DONATE CONVALESCENT PLASMA?

Black River Falls

Where? Chippewa Valley Red Cross Blood and Platelet Donation Center
Contact: 1 (800) 733-2767

Wittenberg

Where? Blood Center of Northcentral Wisconsin, Inc
Contact: (715) 842-0761

Nekoosa

Where? Stevens Point Red Cross Blood and Platelet Donation Center
Contact: 1 (800) 733-2767

Tomah

Where? Chippewa Valley Red Cross Blood and Platelet Donation Center
Contact: 1 (800) 733-2767

Baraboo

Where? Madison West Red Cross Blood, Platelet and Plasma Donation Center
Contact: 1 (800) 733-2767

La Crosse

Where? Versiti Blood Center of Wisconsin in Jackson Plaza
Contact: (877) 232-4376

Contact your nearest health office to be a convalescent plasma donor today. Together, we could save lives!

